March Historic Tours With Linda

reservation: lindavingelen@gmail.com before March 5, 2016.
we'll pick you up at your door

March 7, 2016-Hilton Head Island. Yes we have 23 golf courses and 400 tennis courts; but we have a rich history as well. We'll take you from "heel to toe" including plenty of time at our iconic Harbortown Lighthouse. This tour can include lunch at Harbortown Golf Clubhouse, if you wish. 9-12 am. $25 per person.

March 8, 2016-Savannah, Georgia. Beautiful historic squares draped in Spanish moss just like Oglethorpe planned them in 1733, River Street Jazz musicians, praline samples, movie sets, murder house (remember Midnight in the Garden of Good and Evil??) and Savannah College of Art and Design historic preservation. We'll see it all, including a private tour of a historic home owned by John and Ginger Duncan. 9-4 pm. $38 per person. Lunch on your own.

March 15, 2016-Beaufort, South Carolina. One of the most beautiful and serene towns in South Carolina, you might even see Pat Conroy (or his lovely wife/author Cassandra King) wandering down Bay Street. Filled with homes built by the wealthy rice and cotton plantation owners, Beaufort is a very special destination. You'll have time to shop the charming boutiques and have lunch on your own. Marine families, we can pair this tour with Parris Island Marine Facility if you wish. $38 per person. Lunch on your own.

March 16, 2016-Bluffton/Palmetto Bluff. A Montage five-star facility, you will love your day where Savannah meets Napa. Palmetto Bluff was named "Best Hotel in the Country" by US News and World Report. Montage Palmetto Bluff is located along the May river within 20,000 acres of maritime forest. After lunch at the resort we'll stop in Bluffton for brief shopping. $38 per person. Lunch on your own.

March 17, 2016-Charleston, South Carolina. Sip your St. Patrick's Day Bellini as we motor 2.5 hrs to historic Charleston. We'll tour the historic streets of Charleston, relive the first shots fired in the Civil War, and wander through the charming City Market where the Gullah folks will share their sweet grass baskets. Those who want to stay for dinner will enjoy the best steaks you've ever eaten at Halls Chophouse. $52 per person. Meals on your own.
